Dinner Program:

Our Favorite Photographs

Back by popular demand— we invite everyone to send us your favorite photos and postcards to be shown on the big screen at the dinner. You may choose (or not) to make comments on your photos. But we need to scan your photos before the dinner. You may bring them into the museum or email them to davehuber@verizon.net.
